Stubborn Fire at City Dump. A stubborn fire at the city dump on Main street opposite the fair grounds gave firemen from Alert hose company No. 1 an hour's hard fight before the blaze was subdued Wednesday after-noon. A still alarm was telephoned in at 4.15 o'clock and Chief Wade U. Webster at once sent a delegation of men from the hose company by automobile to the scene of the blaze. They carried with them several lengths of loose hose and soon had a stream playing on the fire, which had gained considerable headway in the refuse of the dump. There was no damage done, the only danger being that of possible spreading. It was the first fire of the
